

CHILDREN RECEIVING SERVICES THROUGH THE FAMILY SUPPORT FOR CHILDREN WITH DISABILITIES (FSCD) PROGRAM
Effective July 1, 2017 to Current

1.1 In order for the FSCD program to determine funding eligibility, a family's dentist needs to provide information verifying which dental procedures or treatment are directly attributable to the child's disability.

1.2 A dentist's assessment of a child's dental needs will be used by FSCD to determine what portion of a child with a disability dental care would be attributed only to any complication of their disability.

1.3 Families with children with disabilities are ONLY eligible to receive funding for dental or orthodontic costs and procedures deemed necessary and attributable to their child's disability. (For example, while cleaning is necessary it is a common procedure and not uniquely related to a disability. Should a child with autism or some other form of disability require anesthetic in order to have their teeth cleaned however; the cost for the anesthetic may be provided.) Therefore, a dentist should not include any aspects of a child's dental procedures or treatment which would be considered routine. Parents are solely responsible for paying for any routine dental care and treatment for their child.

1.4 FSCD will only cover disability-related dental treatment costs of more than $250, per ear.

1.5 Any dental or orthodontic procedures or treatment performed prior to FSCD approval of the disability related portion of costs, will not be paid by the FSCD program. The parent is solely responsible for ensuring that FSCD approval is granted prior to scheduling the dental procedures or treatment.

1.6 Examples where disabilities may cause additional dental or orthodontic expenses are listed below:

- 1.6.a. Disability with direct involvement,
- 1.6.b. Disabilities complicating dentistry,
- 1.6.c. Disabilities creating management problems,
- 1.6.d. Disabilities with minimum dental involvement,
- 1.6.e. Special cases which require preventative care at more frequent intervals.

Some further examples of dental procedures or treatment attributable to the disability of a child are as follows:

The need for general anesthetic in order to complete routine dental care for children with severe behavior or sensory issues

A child with congenital anomalies may have craniofacial malformation that may impact routine dental care. This child may require multiple fillings and extractions related to the malformation over a prolonged period of time.

Any other procedure or treatment which a dental practitioner may deem attributable to the nature of a child's disability.
